BARBADOS, March 12.

WE hear from Grenada, that the new Governor, who is come out determined at all hazards to put the meaſures of adminiſtration into execution, has iſſued writs for an election, by which French Roman Catholics are again made eligible—. This has given ſuch great diſguſt, and is moreover by many thought ſo illegal, that the popular candidates have declined ſtanding, as appears by the following Advertiſements, which, for their diſintereſtedneſs and public ſpirit, deſerve the higheſt commendations.

To the Gentlemen Electors of the Town of St. George.

Gentlemen,

WHEN firſt I offered myſelf to your notice as a Candidate to repreſent you in the next Aſſembly, I acted, as my addreſs expreſly marked, upon the preſumption that legal Writs would be iſſued for the election of Repreſentatives; I now, Gentlemen, mean to decline ſtanding; and, were I inſenſible to the favourable encouragement which I received from you, common reſpect for a body of men, ſo honourable and independent, would, alone, oblige me to aſſign you a reaſon for having changed my purpoſe.

I have then, attentively peruſed, and very deliberately conſidered, the Writs iſſued by his Excellency Governor Leyborne, and the Proclamation therein refered to: And I do finally conceive, that the former are inſufficient for that purpoſe for which they are intended—that they are illegal, and will render all the proceedings of the Aſſembly that may meet in conſequence of them, null, and void; and that the latter is, from beginning to end, one continued, ſingular, and outrageous violation of the laws of England, of the conſtitution of this colony, and of the liberty of the ſubject.

I deliver this, Gentlemen, merely as my opinion—in which I may perhaps ſtand ſingle—without adding proof, argument, or illuſtration in ſupport of it.

Were I impreſſed with different ſentiments, I ſhould continue to aſpire to what I hold the moſt elevated, honourable and diſtinguiſhed ſituation in which an inhabitant of this colony can be placed—that of the legal Repreſentative of the Electors of the Town of St. George.——But thinking as I do, I cannot bring down my mind to ſolicit a mock election; nor conſent to make one of the Dramatis Perſonæ of a farce, upon a ſubject of ſo much ſolemnity and importance, and at a ſeaſon ſo critical and melancholy.

It is, Gentlemen, the duty of every man to uſe that ſhare of reaſon which hath been imparted to him, for his guide and direction through life. Wiſdom will teach a man to deliberate before he reſolves: Integrity will force him to abide by the conviction of his own mind. He who acts againſt, or ſacrifices theſe great principles, commits a breach of a truſt repoſed in him, by a power ſuperior to Kings, Princes, or Governors: He who makes them the rule of his actions, diſcharges his firſt obligation, and ſhould be applauded. The laſt may ſometimes err; and when he does he hath a claim to tenderneſs and pity: But he can never juſtly incur cenſure; and ſhould he experience it, he will ſtill have the ſatisfaction left to know and to feel that it came unmerited. I have the honour to be, with very ſincere regard, Gentlemen, your faithful and obedient ſervant,

Mount-Melvill, ARTHUR PIGOTT,

Jan. 21ſt, 1772.

To the Gentlemen Freeholders of the Town of St. George.

Gentlemen,

ACCORDING to the beſt and moſt impartial judgment we are able to form, the preſent Writs for the Election of an Aſſembly for this Iſland, are wholly illegal, becauſe they allow of the choice of Roman Catholics to be members of the ſame, which is equally contrary to the laws of Great Britain, and to the eſtabliſhed conſtitution of this colony. For theſe reaſons, Gentlemen, although to our great regret, we muſt decline on the preſent occaſion, ſoliciting the honour we had hoped for, of being your Repreſentatives for this place: We return our humble thanks to thoſe Gentlemen, who had encouraged us to hope for their favour, and aſſure them on every future opportunity that may offer, of our hearty zeal for their intereſts; and that our utmoſt endeavours ſhall be uſed in every legal way, to reſtore to them all thoſe liberties and privileges they are entitled to, by their birth-right, and by the laws of their country.

We are, Gentlemen,

Your moſt obedient,

And moſt humble Servants,

ISRAEL WILKES.

St. George, Jan. 28, 1772. ALEX SYMPSON.

JOHN LESSLY.

GRENADA, February 8.

ON Friday the 31ſt of laſt month the following petition was preſented to his Excellency the Governor, by Alexander Campbell, Alexander Sympſon, John de Ponthieu, and Arthur Pigott, Eſquires, which his Excellency was pleaſed to ſay, he would take into conſideration.

Grenada.

The humble Petition of the Freeholders, Merchants, and others, whoſe names are under written, inhabitants of the Iſland of Grenada, to his Excellency William Leyborne Leyborne, Eſq; Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Southern Caribbee Iſlands of Grenada, the Grenadines, St. Vincent and Tobago, Chancellor, Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the ſame, &c.

SHEWETH,

THAT Writs for the Election of members of an Aſſembly for the Iſland of Grenada, have been lately iſſued to chooſe perſons qualified according to a Proclamation bearing date the 31ſt day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, which Proclamation, we, your petitioners, apprehend to be wholly illegal, becauſe it allows of Roman Catholics into the Aſſembly, which in our opinion, is contrary to the laws of England, and to the eſtabliſhed conſtitution of this colony.

That the validity of the acts paſſed by the late Aſſembly, which was called in by virtue of that Proclamation, was diſputed by many perſons, and the acts were declared, by a majority of the Judges of his Majeſty's court of common Pleas, and a very reſpectable Jury of this Iſland, to be null and void.

That upon a proper repreſentation, for theſe and other reaſons, that Aſſembly was diſſolved by his Majeſty's late Chief Governor of this Iſland; and as the ſame evil conſequences to the commercial Intereſt of this colony, as well as to the properties of all the freeholders thereof, as were fully ſet forth in the ſaid repreſentation, are ſtill moſt juſtly to be feared, from the diſputes that may ariſe reſpecting the validity and legality of all acts paſſed by an Aſſembly ſo conſtituted; and as we are likewiſe very ſenſible of the great want this Iſland is in, for its moſt important and eſſential intereſts, of a legal Aſſembly to be immediately held.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly ſubmit to your Excellency's wiſdom and diſcernment, whether the many dreaded inconveniencies to the colony may not be avoided by your Excellency's recalling the preſent Writs; or, if that is now too late to be done your Petitioners pray, that your Excellency will (as by law you may) diſſolve the Aſſembly which may be elected in conſequence of thoſe Writs, before they are permitted to meet. An event which would immediately call into queſtion the exiſtence of the preſent court act, by which all the proceedings of the courts of juſtice are governed: And that your Excellency would immediately thereafter be pleaſed to iſſue other Writs for the convening of an Aſſembly in the form and manner preſcribed by the laws of Great Britain and this colony. And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed by forty four freeholders, &c.)

On Monday laſt came on at the Court-Houſe, in purſuance of the Writs lately iſſued, the election of members to repreſent this town, when Turquil M'Vicar, John Preſchler, William Connor, Iſaac Montgomery Beatt, and Michael Corr, Eſquires, appeared and were put on the poll as candidates. About twelve o'clock in the day, Arthur Pigott, Eſq; went up to the poll, and having demanded whether any freeholder was then voting, or about to offer his vote, and being anſwered in the negative, addreſſed himſelf to the Provoſt-Marſhal, nearly as follows:

"Mr. Provoſt Marſhal, I am a freeholder in this town; and for the ſatisfaction of any Gentleman candidate, or other, but not becauſe there is any obligation on me to do ſo, I am ready to take the oaths uſually adminiſtered to voters.—You are the perſon to whom the execution of the Writ, by virtue of which this election is now holden, is entruſted: and it is therefore to you I addreſs myſelf.

"I am one of a number of freeholders, who think that the writs lately iſſued are illegal, and this they and I do apprehend to be the place where, and the time when, our opinions on that ſubject may be properly and lawfully expreſſed: And as nothing can be more diſtant from our intention than to give hindrance or diſturbance to an election which in the opinion of other perſons may be legal, I alone come here to tender to you a Proteſt againſt this election, which Proteſt, as it contains the reaſons by which thoſe freeholders who have ſigned it are actuated, I ſhall firſt read aloud here."

Mr. Piggott then read the following Proteſt, after which he delivered it to the Provoſt Marſhal.

Grenada. St. George's.

WHEREAS his Excellency William Leyborne Leyborne, Eſq; hath been pleaſed to iſſue Writs, whereby the freeholders of this town, and of the ſeveral pariſhes of this Iſland, and of the Iſland of Carrioucou, are directed to be ſummoned and convened in order to chooſe perſons to repreſent them in the Aſſembly, qualified according to a Proclamation bearing date the thirty-firſt day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and iſſued by the then commander in chief in this Iſland: And whereas the ſaid Proclamation is, in our apprehenſion, totally illegal; becauſe, thereby, an act or ordinance of this Iſland merely temporary, and which hath long ſince ceaſed, is, in part, continued and given force and effect to, by the ſole authority of his Majeſty's repreſentative in this Iſland, at the ſame time that the other part thereof is utterly rejected and diſpenſed with; becauſe Roman Catholics, diſqualified by the Laws of England, which were expreſly extended to this colony by his Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation of the 7th of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty three, and diſqualified by the conſtitution eſtabliſhed here at the commencement of the civil government, in virtue of his Majeſty's commiſſion alſo under the great ſeal of Great Britain to his late Governor Robert Melvill, Eſq; in faith and confidence of which the ſettlement of this colony was carried on, are thereby made eligible in the Aſſembly;—and becauſe ſundry other regulations, new, extraordinary and unconſtitutional are therein and thereby made: And whereas the ſaid Writs are totally different from thoſe by virtue whereof the Aſſemblies of Repreſentatives were originally convened and held, and are alſo founded on, and expreſly refer to the ſaid illegal Proclamation of the thirty-firſt of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty eight: And whereas we do apprehend, that according to the laws of England, the Charter of this colony, and ſound reaſon, his Majeſty's Governor cannot, by his ſole authority, alter the eſtabliſhed form of any the leaſt ſignificant Writ, much leſs of thoſe ſo high and important in their nature and effects as are the Writs in conſequence of which the Legiſlature is convoked: And whereas the powers and authorities veſted in and entruſted to the Legiſlature are ſo many, ſo great, and ſo extenſive, that every circumſtance with reſpect to its origination and continuance, and ending, is of the higheſt conſequence to his Majeſty's ſubjects, and requires to be looked after and attended to with all imaginable circumſpection: And whereas it might be of the moſt dangerous conſequence to, and highly deſtructive of the liberties and properties of his Majeſty's ſubjects, to permit innovations of a nature and tendency ſo extraordinary and dangerous, to paſs without notice or obſervation; and ſilence might be conſtrued an acquieſcence therein: And whereas it hath been already repreſented by petition to his ſaid Exceſſency William Leyborne Leyborne, that the ſaid Writs by him lately iſſued are illegal, inſufficient for the purpoſe of calling together a lawful Aſſembly, and will add to the many inconveniencies and diſtreſſes under which this colony is at preſent labouring, and from which it can only be freed by an exertion of the ſalutary powers lodged by the conſtitution in a Legiſlature lawfully convened. We, therefore, the underſigned freeholders of this town, animated by a juſt ſenſe of our right by law to be legally repreſented, and in the hope that his Majeſty's Governor will take the circumſtances of the ſituation of the colony into his moſt ſerious conſideration, and adminiſter ſuch relief as he hath in his power, and by law may, DO, in the mean time, proteſt againſt the ſaid Proclamation of the thirty-firſt of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and the ſaid Writs, and againſt the election for this town, and all other elections in conſequence thereof, and againſt all the actings and doings of the Aſſembly that may meet in conſequence thereof: And we declare, that ſuch Aſſembly will not be a lawful Repreſentation of the inhabitants of this Iſland, and conſequently will be without power to make laws, or to do any other act, matter or thing, to bind the ſaid inhabitants; and that we ſhall not think ourſelves obliged, or in duty bound, to pay any regard or obedience to any ſuch laws, or to any reſolutions, orders, decrees, or mandates of an Aſſembly made to commence in manner ſo unwarrantable and extraordinary, after recent experience of the evils brought upon the colony by the ſame meaſure.

The 3d February, 1772.

(Signed by twenty-one freeholders.)

As ſoon as the Proteſt had been read and delivered, one of the candidates, ſeemingly much agitated, began to make a reply; but Mr. Piggott's buſineſs at the Poll being finiſhed, he immediately withdrew, and by that prudent conduct prevented altercation and uſeleſs diſpute.

At two o'clock the Poll was cloſed, when John Preſchier, William Conner, Iſaac Montgomery Betty, and Michael Corr, Eſqrs, were elected.

LONDON.

March 7. It is well obſerved by a member of the Houſe of Commons on the Royal Marriage bill, that it was paving the way for the male iſſue of the Royal Family to live in a continual courſe of debauchery and diſſoluteneſs; for if they are by this act debarred from marriage for ſo many years, contrary to law and nature, what can be expected but that they will give a looſe to their paſſions, and gratify them in a private and clandeſtine manner, forming illicit connections with the wives and daughters of the nobility and gentry, as they may happen to come in their way, and living at large through the kingdom.

Extract of a letter from Dover, February 28.

Laſt night there was a prodigious fall of the rock at Shakeſpear's cliff, the noiſe of which was heard ſeveral miles. It has rendered the road along the Sea from this place to Folkſtone quite impaſſable; and the cliff continues to fall by the houſes in Snargate-ſtreet almoſt daily, to the great terror of the inhabitants, ſeveral of whom have already quitted their houſes, and others are preparing to do ſo. No lives have as yet been loſt, but the ſituation of thoſe people who reſide under the rock is very alarming.

"A few days ago near 100 feet of the caſtle wall facing the town fell down, as did alſo a new building, lately erected towards the ſea, owing to the fall of the rock which ſupported it."

We can aſſure the public from authority, that Lord North ſent a meſſage a few days ago to the diſſenting Miniſters, that they might be aſſured of his good wiſhes in releaſing them from ſubſcribing to the articles; and that upon a proper application they might depend upon his aſſiſtance. The Miniſters accordingly had a meeting, and appointed a committee of fifteen to conduct this important affair.

We have authority to inform the public, that there is a moral certainty of an immediate peace between the Ruſſians and the Porte. The congreſs is already opened at Jaſſy the capital of Moldavia; and it is thought that all the demands of the Czarina will be complied with; the chief of which is the abſolute and intire ceſſion of the Crimea, and all the provinces to the eaſt of the Danube. The cauſe of this ſudden reſolution of pacification in the Ottoman Divan, riſes from what they call the Treaſury of the Court of Vienna; the Emperor having for two years paſt received a very large ſubſidy from the Porte, without having taken one ſtep to intimidate Ruſſia from her enterpriſes.

The friends of the Imperial Court own the receipt of the ſubſidy; but they excuſe the Emperor's inactivity, by the ſcarcity of proviſions, which prevented the formation of magazines: but others affirm, that a ſecret declaration from Berlin was the true cauſe of the breach of promiſe to the Porte.

The Emperor, however, is to derive benefit from the pacification. The affairs of Poland are to be put on a new footing, and its conſtitution in ſome meaſure changed. The Emperor is to extend his frontier on the ſide of Hungary, into the heart of that kingdom; Poliſh Pruſſia is to be given to the family of Brandenburg, and Ruſſia is to poſſeſs itſelf of all the Poliſh Ukraine. The King of Poland, with ſome additional authority, is to keep up the ſhadow of monarchy in Warſaw.

The Ruſſians, continues our correſpondent, will derive immediate advantage from the poſſeſſion of the Crimea. It will give them the command of the Euxine, and carry terror to the walls of Conſtantinople; which city will now, in a great meaſure, depend upon their nod. The cultivation of tobacco is already high in the Crimea; and there is a particular article for permitting the Ruſſians to tranſport that commodity thro' the Propontis into the Weſtern Europe.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia, in conſideration of theſe ceſſions, is to guarantee to the Porte all its dominions; and the Ruſſian fleet in the Archipelago is to be ſold at a ſet value, to the Grand Seignor, who intends to turn his arms againſt Egypt. The Empreſs has alſo promiſed to uſe her influence with the Court of Perſia, to prevent them from aiding and abetting the revolted Baſhaw of Bagdad, who has uſurped the government of Babylonia.

The Turks upon the whole, will loſe little of their annual revenue by this ceſſion: and they will, with their now diſciplined armies, be ſoon able to reduce the revolted provinces in the ſouth and eaſt. Egypt has fallen off, Syria totters and Meſopotamia is loſt, together with the poſſeſſion of the Arabian ſhore of the gulph of Perſia toward the mouth of the Euphrates. Theſe will certainly be recovered, in a very ſhort time, by the armies now ſtationed on the Danube.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen Feb. 25.

"Laſt Saturday Major de Falkonſhiold, one of the ſtate priſoners, was releaſed from his confinement. The ſame day Count de Brandt was brought before the Commiſſioners at the Citadel, in the ſame manner as Count Struenſee had been before; his chains, which weighed 18lb. were taken off in the anti chamber.——When he was brought into the audience chamber before the Commiſſioners, he ſeemed at firſt ſomewhat diſconcerted, but in a little time recovered his ſpirits, and behaved with becoming reſolution. When his examination was finiſhed, that of Profeſſor Berger, the King's Phyſician came on, which laſted above three hours, and he has ſince been allowed the uſe of pen and ink, &c. but the depoſitions of the above priſoners remain a ſecret as yet."

March 13. Lady Ligonier, who will loſe that name in a few days, now reſides at Liſle, in Flanders; her fortune, which was 10,000l. will be returned; and ſhe is to retain all the jewels, and other marks of tenderneſs, which, in the ſpotleſs moments of purity, were preſented by her huſband.

March 17. The reports of the death of the Queen of Denmark are, we are well informed, void of truth: The proceedings againſt her are carried on with the greateſt caution, and ſhe has every indulgence that can be allowed a ſtate priſoner, and one of her birth; Colonel Keith, 'tis ſaid, has been ſent for ſeveral times by ſome of the ſenators appointed to inquire into this affair, and great deference is paid to whatever he advances; and it is therefore imagined, that proceedings will ſoon be ſtopped, and none be made acquainted with the particular circumſtances, except his Majeſty of Great Britain; and the puniſhment intended for this Princeſs will be ſubmitted to his opinion.

MARCH 19.

Monday laſt Mr. Burke very pathetically deſcribed the miſchiefs which the Royal Marriage bill muſt one day bring upon the nation, and very finely urged the inhumanity of it; the unfeelingneſs of the parent who could aſk it; and very emphatically concluded with theſe words, but the framer of this bill has no children! the whole Houſe was ſtruck with the beauty of the climax. It obviouſly alluded to Lord Mansfield; who has been moſt juſtly called, "the great canker worm of the ſtate."

Extract of a letter from the Hague, March 20.

"They write from Cadiz, that though an order was publiſhed ſome time ago, that no man of war of any nation whatever ſhould put into any of the ſea ports of Spain, the execution of which was rigorouſly obſerved, a French man of war had nevertheleſs put in there not long ſince, to repair ſome damage ſhe had received in a ſtorm; that ſome of their officers, during their ſtay there, engaged in a contraband trade, in conſequence of which they were taken priſoners; that the commander of the French man of war had leave to ſail, but refuſed to go without his officers, and that a courier was ſent to Madrid for further inſtructions with reſpect to this affair.

"Mr. Yvois, receiver of the public revenues at Rotterdam, and a conſiderable merchant there, has juſt failed for 250 000 guilders, and it is ſaid he has retired to France."

March, 21. None of all the ſtories relative to the affairs of Denmark, ſo far as reſpects the movements of our Court thereon, are in the leaſt authentic. It is however a fact, that the ſaith of the King of Denmark, with the permiſſion of the Queen his mother and Prince Frederick, has been pledged, that no ſtep, affecting the honour and life of the reigning Queen of Denmark, ſhall be carried into execution, without firſt laying the merits of it before the court of Great Britain, and obtaining the concurrence, or, at any rate, the declaration of a non interference of the King her brother therein.—This may be depended upon, as the moſt authentic intelligence of the ſtate of the affair between the Courts of London and Copenhagen hitherto given.

The Miniſtry have received certain advice of ſome dangerous deſigns hatching by the Spaniſh Court againſt Jamaica, and ſome other places in the Weſt-Indies.

March 23. Some new impoſts are talked of to be laid on America, before the riſing of the Parliament.

March 26. Sir Joſeph Mawbey moved to correct the title of the royal marriage act, and to make it coextenſive with its contents, by adding theſe words, "An Act for enlarging and extending the "prerogative of the Crown, and for the encou-"ragement of adultery and fornication, under the "pretence of" regulating the marriage of the Royal Family; but this was objected to, and the latter words continue to form the title.

The Royal Marriage Bill has now paſſed the Moſt Faithful Commons, in the unlimited extent it was drawn by Lord Mansfield; ſo that every deſcendant of our now more than ever to be lamented Sovereign George the Second is in vaſſalage and ſlavery; and the Kings of this limited monarchy are erected into family tyrants, to trample upon the laws of nature and religion. One reſource of comfort ſtill remains,—the reflection that the arbitrary acts of a deſpotic Henry were all repealed by his beneficent ſon King Edward the Sixth.

The Royal Marriage Bill has been paſſed at the expence of two Britiſh Baronies, five Iriſh ditto, one advancement from ditto to an Iriſh Earldom, one Blue Ribbon, three Red ones, one Baronetage, three reverſionary patent places, twenty five thouſand pounds in occaſional gratuities, beſides innumerable promiſes of lottery tickets. In ſo very intereſting and conſtitutional a light is this bill ſeen by our worthy repreſentatives!

The Blue Ribbon which is to be given to Lord North, was promiſed to him ſeveral months ago. Quere, if this is not the firſt time the King has kept his promiſe with L. North.

March 27. The letters brought by this day's mail confirm not only that preliminaries of peace have been ſigned by the Plenipotentiaries of the Turks and Ruſſians, but that a ſuſpenſion of arms had been publiſhed in both armies.

The Cadets at Woolwich are ſoon to be increaſed from 43 to 100 men, as in time of war.

The annuity of 2000*l. per annum which a ſociety of gentlemen who meet at the Globe Tavern in Fleet-ſtreet, have reſolved to ſettle to Mr. Wilkes is to be raiſed in the following manner:* ——500 members to ſubſcribe 4*l. a year each, of which one to be paid by each every quarter—by which they will be able to pay* 500*l. every month to Mr. Wilkes.*

Laſt Sunday afternoon the lightning ſtruck Mr. Whitefield's Chapel in Tottenham-court, and killed one man; it is remarkable that the other perſons therein eſcaped unhurt.

March 28. Notwithſtanding the ſilence of all the other papers it may be depended upon as a fact, that laſt Saturday evening an expreſs arrived from Ireland, relating to the White-boys. The meſſenger did not ſtay above two hours, when he returned with an anſwer. The purport of it is ſaid to be, to put all the ring-leaders of the mob to death without mercy. Perſons of great conſequence are ſuppoſed to be concerned in the late riſing of the White-boys, than moſt people imagine.

Whitehall, March 28. The King has been pleaſed to appoint William Moore, Eſq; Attorney General of the iſland of Barbados, in America, in the room of Henry Beckles, Eſq; deceaſed.

The King has alſo been pleaſed to appoint John Fenton, Eſq; Provoſt Marſhal of the province of Nova Scotia, in America.

PORTSMOUTH, May 8.

We hear from Berwick, that on the Evening of the firſt of this inſtant, between eight and nine o'clock, a young woman named Eunice Goodwin, daughter of Daniel Goodwin, was inſtantly killed by lightning. A ſtream of lightning which came from the ſouth eaſt, ſtruck the pick end of the roof of a farm houſe belonging to Mr. Moore of ſaid town, about a mile and a half from the meeting houſe in the old Pariſh: the houſe is but one ſtory high: the lightning began at the eaſt end, and divided, one part of the electrical matter paſt along upon the ride pole of the houſe, the inſide, to the next pair of ſtairs, and then turned, and paſt down by the ſpar the ſouth ſide of the houſe, gouging a mark as it went. The poor young woman was ſitting on a cheſt in the lower room, near directly under the end of the ſpar, and it appeared to have ſtruck her upon the right temple, the hair being ſcorched, and that ſide of her face bruiſed. The other part of the electrical matter paſt down upon the weather board, the northern ſide of the houſe ſtarting it off and, proceeding down the north eaſt corner poſt, beating off the caſing, the inſide. At this corner were the dreſſers or ſhelves, and a lad of about 18 years old was ſitting upon the under dreſſer, who alſo was ſtruck, and ſtunned, but ſoon revived again, and is likely to do well. The pewter upon the dreſſers was alſo ſo melted, that ſcarce a plate or a diſh but what has a hole thro' it. It is remarkable, that the lightning which paſſed in two different directions upon this houſe, did no more damage to it. It is alſo remarkable, that the lightning has ſtruck three or four times within the ſpace of a few years, within the compaſs of fifty rods, from this houſe. Once it killed an ox, at another time it deſtroyed a tree, at another time ſtruck the ground.

What is the natural cauſe, why this ſpot of ground is ſo obnoxious, is not eaſy to determine.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London to his friend in Philadelphia, dated Feb. 8, 1770.

"Cooper and Horrax have preſented a petition for an American Biſhop, and are moving every ſpring to ſupport this pious inſtitution. Counter petitions ought to be forwarded from every opponent of this deſign. Lord North wiſhes to know upon what grounds to oppoſe it, and Hillſborough is not friendly to it; but the virtuous Duke of Grafton is, I am told very zealous. Something ſhould certainly be done, but I think no one denomination of Diſſenters, ſhould ſingly take the weight of the matter on them."

The ſhip Phœbe, Mungo Davidſon, late Maſter, belonging to this port, bound from the Bay of Honduras to London, met with a gale of wind, in which the mate and a boy were waſhed overboard; the Captain being then very ill, the veſſel was left without a navigator, till they met with a Hollander, out of whom they got a mate, who took charge of the veſſel, and carried her into Liſbon. Captain Davidſon died the day after the above mate came on board.

Tueſday laſt arrived Capt. Liſle, from Liverpool, which he left the 2d of April, by whom we learn, that the Diana, Wilſon, was to ſail in a few days after him for New-York.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt M'Culloch, from Belfaſt, with whom came paſſenger Capt. M'Curcheon, late of the brig Polly, of this port, who was drove aſhore the 11th of February going into Belfaſt, where the veſſel beat to pieces.

Sunday laſt arrived here Capt. Henderſon, from Vigo: On the 17th of February, in lat. 43, 23, long. 15, 35, at nine o'clock in the morning, the brig was ſtruck with lightning, which hurt Capt. Henderſon and three of the people, but did no other damage.

NEW-YORK, May 21.

Off the Matanzas, Capt. Farquhar, mentioned in our laſt, fell in with the Ship Suffolk, Captain Jerman, from Jamaica for London, who, on the Night of the 24th of April, run on the N. W. Part of the Bahama Bank, Capt. Farquhar himſelf meeting with the like Fate at the ſame Time, as alſo the Sloop Polly, from Jamaica, for Philadelphia; that the two laſt mentioned ſoon got off, but Capt. Jerman before he could get his Ship afloat, threw overboard 40,000 Feet of Mahogany, 66 Puncheons of Rum, 17 Hogſheads of Sugar, a Stream Cable, a Hawſer, ſome Water Caſks, and Gun Carriages; and put on board the Hope, 44 Caſks of Rum, 6 Hogſheads of Sugar, 8 Bags of Cotton, ſome Sails, and a Cable; and, on board the Polly, 20 Puncheons of Rum, and 17 Bales of Cotton.—The Suffolk afterwards proceeded on her Voyage, and was left well by Capt. Farquhar the 3d Inſtant.

Capt. Newton, in the Sloop Thunderbolt, mentioned in our laſt to be run aſhore on Sandy-Hook, has been got off ſince, and came up, but her whole Cargo is loſt.

Friday Afternoon Capt. Quill arrived here in 18 Days from Cape Nichola, and informs, That on the 26th ult. a French Officer with a Party of Soldiers, boarded all the Veſſels at the Mole at Night, under Pretence of looking for Deſerters, and carried aſhore the Capts. Davies, Grennell, Tucker and Brown, and a Mate of one Capt. Martin, and confined them in Gaol for 36 Hours, but then ſet them at Liberty.

Tueſday laſt the ſhip Robert, Capt. Matthew Ruſſel arrived here in 6 Weeks from Newry, who on the 15th April Lat. 50, 40. ſpoke with a Brigg, Capt. Joſeph Huet from Antigua bound to Liverpool, and with a Ship ——— from Antigua for Liverpool, who 3 Days before had loſt his Main and Mizen Maſts, and three of his People, who were waſhed overboard in a hard Gale of Wind.—The Ship Boyne, Capt. Cunningham for Philadelphia, ſailed with Capt. Ruſſel.

The ſame Day arrived the Sloop Mary, Capt. Stamers, in 25 Days from Santa Croix, who on the 5th Inſtant Lat. 32, 33, ſpoke with a ſchooner 13 Days out from Gaſco Bay bound to Cape Nichola Mole, and on the 12th Inſtant, Lat. 25, Lon. 64, ſpoke with a Ship (belonging to Meſſieurs Willing and Morris, of Philadelphia) Capt. Miller Maſter, 18 Days from Jamaica, bound to London, all well.

Extract of a Letter from Newry, in Ireland dated March 31.

"The north of Ireland is in the greateſt confuſion it ever was ſince King James's time. [occaſion'd, it is ſaid by the landlords raiſing their rents ſo high that the poor cannot live, by ſome late laws for incloſing the common lands, and other impoſitions] There are it is ſuppoſed, in each of the northern counties, above 15,000 men who call themſelves Hearts of Steel, aſſemble in the evening at the ſound of horns, march in the night thro' the country, take all the arms and ammunition they can find, go among the great gentlemen and land holders, oblige them to ſwear never to ſet their lands at above twelve ſhillings an acre, deſtroy all the leaſes taken at a higher rent, and oblige the landlords to give new ones at that rate. All who join them, they ſwear to be true to the King and Hearts of Steel, with ſome other articles which are kept ſecret; each party has a poſt office for their letters; The whole army of the kingdom, both horſe and foot, are ſent againſt them, but cannot ſubdue them, tho' many of their out ſcouts and all perſons that are ſuſpected, or have even been heard to talk of the Hearts of Steel, have been taken and ſent to priſon, ſo that the gaols are as full as they can hold, and the country is lying perfectly waſte, for not one labourer is to be had, except old men and women: God knows how the matter will end."

The Ships Earl of Dunmore Capt. Effingham Lawrence, and the Roſe Capt. Chriſtopher Miller, are to ſail this Day for London, and on Sunday the Grace Chambers for Briſtol.

This Day the following Horſes will run for the Purſe at Flat-Buſh,

Mr. Rich. Thorne's Rainbow,
Mr. John Thorne's Doe,

Oh rare, Blatt my Eyes, Buckhorſe!
FOR Shame Bully Buckhorſe, why ſlab in the Dark?
Perhaps yet of Honour there's in you one Spark;
Stand forth as a Man, fair baniſh all Fears,
Your Skin is too dirty, to hazard your Ears.

A TRUTH, on a late Exploit.

Oh Tempora! Oh Mores!
HERE Black Guards in ſafety exhibit ſuch Wit,
As ſcandal, Abuſe, or demoliſhing Pitt.

Which are to be ſold at the loweſt prices, at his ſtore in Queen-ſtreet, near Burling's ſlip, where he gives the beſt prices for Linen Rags, according to their quality and fineneſs.

When it is conſidered that the above paper and other articles manufactured here, make a clear ſaving to this country of all the money that would have been ſent out to purchaſe them from abroad, it is hoped that all thoſe who really wiſh to promote the intereſt of America, and of this country in particular, with which their own intereſt is cloſely connected, will contribute their aid to the ſucceſs of this undertaking, which cannot be effectually done without a conſtant care in ſaving and ſupplying him with thoſe linen rags, which are generally deſtroyed or thrown away as uſeleſs, tho' they are abſolutely neceſſary to a paper manufactory, which cannot be carried on without them.

To add to the difficulty of procuring a ſufficiency of rags, conſiderable quantities have been collected here and ſent to other colonies, whereby their manufactories have been ſupplied, to the injury of our own, with this material article; And tho' the legiſlature have not yet thought proper to prohibit the exportation of it, yet it is hoped a due regard to their own intereſt will incline the inhabitants of this country to ſupply a manufactory among themſelves, preferably to thoſe of another colony.

A New SONG.

AS Landlady Dobbins, a Methodist pure,
At Meeting one Sunday delay'd,
Coming home unexpected, she caught on the Floor,
Her Tapster, with Dolly the Maid.
She flew to the Ladle, the Poker, the Spit;
But at last she began to proceed,——
" Sure Satan himself, of the Bottomless Pit
" Will avenge such a damnable Deed.
" Pack off, thou damn'd Dog, or I'll give thee a Douce,
" Avant, with thy Babilon Whore;
" What, when I have twenty good Beds in my House,
" To do such a Thing on the Floor!"

Copenhagen, March 7. The commission of inquisition is closely occupied in interrogating Count Brandt. The following has just appeared in one of the public papers of this city, with respect to Count Struensee: "It is very certain that Count Struensee is convicted of more than one crime; he has confessed, in one of his examinations, that he has been guilty of high treason, in having, without his Majesty's knowledge, expedited orders from the Cabinet, by which he has made many useless and dangerous changes. It is farther said, that there has been found among his papers, in his own hand writing, an account, from whence it is strong-suspected that he has defrauded the Royal Treasury of 100,000 rixdollars for his own use, or that of his creatures. There is the greater reason for this belief from there having been found in his bureau, actions to a very great amount; and his appointments, as Prime Minister, not amounting to 3000 rixdollars, he has been too short a time in office to acquire fairly the before mentioned large sums."

BOSTON, May 7.

The Connecticut papers are full of complaints of the arbitrary proceedings of the New-Yorkers, with the inhabitants of sundry towns formerly granted by the Government of New-Hampshire, but now in the jurisdiction of New-York. At Allington, it is said that in the dead of the night of Sunday the 22d of March, the house of Recompence Baker was assaulted and broke open by 12 or 15 Scots men, armed with cutlasses, broad-swords and pistols; on their approach, Baker awaking, sprung from his bed, and leaped out into the snow, where they pursued, took and bound him, giving him several cuts with their swords, on the head and arms, one of which was cut almost half off; they also cut his wife in several places about the head, neck and face, and the arm of a boy of 12 years of age.

The reason of this usage was that Baker, tho' a man well esteem'd by his neighbours, had been indicted as a rioter, and it was intended to carry him to New-York, for which place they forced him away from his house, saying, their orders were to bring him dead or alive—But he was soon rescued and carried home by the country people, who were in general so enraged, that it is said they are determined, that whoever should make another attempt of the kind, shall not escape with life.

HUGH GAINE,

Has received in the last Vessels from London, the several Articles under mentioned, which, by Appointment of the Proprietors may be had at his Store at the Bible and Crown in Hanover Square, on the most reasonable Terms viz.

The Game of MOTTOES, or English Jokes,

IN imitation of, but far superiour to, the French mottoes or jokes sold at a very high price in London. These JOKES were invented abroad as an agreeable amusement after dinner and supper, by enlivening and entertaining company at a trifling expence. Ladies choose for gentlemen, and gentlemen for ladies; and when broke, contain a motto or joke, which generally is productive of the greatest mirth and humour. In short, every one may find in this game, under the pleasing covering of artificial fruit, a flower, or a bird, some useful precept, and witty and agreeable saying, tending to convey instruction by means of pleasure and delight.

For the Complexion, and Disorders of the Skin:

THE TRUE EAU DE FLEURS DE VENICE, or the VENETIAN BLOOM-WATER. This curious water, extracted from the most fragrant flowers, is much superior to any beauty-wash ever yet discovered, giving to the skin the greatest whiteness and softness imaginable. It takes away pimples, freckles and spots of every kind, with all disagreeable redness, tans, and sun-burns. It destroys those minute worms, [maggots] which lodge under and deform the skin. It preserves it from wrinkles to an advanced age, and gives to the whole complection, in a very short time, that healthful and blooming appearance which it ought to have when free from disorders. It is also excellent for the eyes, strengthening and preserving the sight.

THE AROMATICK TOOTH-WATER:

INVENTED by CAPPRONS, dentist to his most Christian Majesty, which not only cleanses and whitens the teeth, but preserves the gums, nourishes and makes them grow. It eradicates the most inveterate scurvy, renders those teeth that are loose and ready to fall out, firm and fixed; preserves such as are sound, and prevents their spoiling. This Aromatick water has besides, the virtue of curing all disagreeable smells from the breath, which are owing to the scurvy in the gums and rotten teeth. Cappron's Elixir assuages and cures the most violent tooth-ach in a few minutes. N. B. Cappron's invented brushes for using the Aromatick tooth water may likewise be had.

From Rochelle:

PECTORAL and STOMACHICK LOZENGES by S. SEIGNETTE, inventor of the famous salt of Rochelle, are an infallible remedy against all rheums, coughs, consumptions, hoarsenesses, &c. They prevent the Pthysick, Asthma, &c. They ease the irritations of the acrid humours that excite the cough. By their balsamick and nutritive virtues they fortify the tender vessels of the stomach, help digestion, and promote chilification; they melt in water like sugar, are of a most agreeable taste, and fail not to correct the breath and the impure exhalations of the stomach.

CORN-PLASTERS:

INVENTED by the famous Dr. CAMERON. This famous plaster, which was discovered by Dr. Cameron when in France, is offered to the publick from a persuasion that those who shall make use of it will experience its effects to be infallible. It has a very agreeable smell, cures and eradicates all kinds of corns.

EAU de LUCE in cut smelling bottles, superiour to any other. Also cases for the smelling bottles.

LOZENGES from the BALSAM of TOLU.

GREENOUGH'S TINCTURE for preserving and cleansing the TEETH.

GREENOUGH'S TINCTURE for curing the TOOTH-ACH.

STOUGHTON'S DROPS, or Stomachick ELIXIR, best sort. 31 34

PErsonally appeared before me David Alston, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, Reuben Fitz Randolph, being of full Age, and was duly affirmed, that in the Trial depending between William Stone, or his Daughter, and William Smith, Son of James Smith, so called, that the said William Smith came to the said Randolph, asked him if he ever had to do with the said Girl? (meaning, as the said Randolph thought, to have carnal Knowledge of the Body of the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to said William Stone) the said Randolph answered said Smith, no; and said he never had any Thing to do with her in that Shape, nor never was an Hour in her Company in private to his Knowledge; with that the said Smith replies to the said Randolph, whether or no the said Randolph heard any Body say, that they had any Thing to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, in Manner above mentioned? Furthermore in particular, said Smith asked said Randolph, whether or no he ever heard his Brother Isaac, or Stephen Carman say, that both or either of them had to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to William Stone, in the Manner aforesaid? And said Randolph replied, no, he never did; then said Smith said to the said Randolph, if you will swear, or fetch any Man that will swear, that they ever had to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to William Stone, that the said Smith would give the said Randolph one of the best Cows in his Yard.

REUBEN FITZ RANDOLPH.

Taken and affirmed before me the Day and Year above,
DAVID ALSTON, Justice. 30 33
